About The Delta Center for Culture and Learning

The mission of The Delta Center is to promote greater understanding of Mississippi Delta culture and history and its significance to the world through education, partnerships, and community engagement. The Delta Center for Culture and Learning is a nationally recognized, award-winning "Center of Excellence" at Delta State University. Delta State University is one the eight universities in Mississippi governed by the Institutions of Higher Learning. The Delta Center is an interdisciplinary program that focuses on the humanities and social sciences as they relate to the Delta. To learn more, visit <http://deltacenterdsu.com/>. To meet the staff of The Delta Center, visit <http://deltacenterdsu.com/the-staff/>.

The Delta Center advances Delta State University's participation in promoting and celebrating the unique heritage of the Delta while also addressing the longstanding social, economic, and cultural challenges that inhibit regional advancement. The Delta Center has fulfilled this role since its inception in the year 2000 and continues to do so by:

- ① Serving as management entity for the Congressionally-designated Mississippi Delta National Heritage Area, a cultural heritage and economic development partnership between the people of the Mississippi Delta and the National Park Service;
- ② Housing the International Delta Blues Project, which comprises the International Conference on the Blues, a Blues Studies program, and a Blues Leadership Incubator promoting economic development and entrepreneurship related to Blues tourism and the creative economy;
- ③ Hosting "The Most Southern Place on Earth: Music, Culture and History of the Mississippi Delta," a Landmarks of American History and Culture workshop funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities which brings K-12 educators to the Delta for a week-long educational and cultural immersion experience;

Over the years, The Delta Center has been instrumental in helping the Robertson Scholars program establish and maintain a presence in the Mississippi Delta. The Delta Center has helped to create all Mississippi Delta-based internships for Robertson Scholars and serves as a liaison between our program and Delta State University. They provide learning experiences for scholars during the summer (e.g., tours, trips, receptions) and provide an intellectual framework for the Community Summer that is ~~generally~~ not available at ~~other locations~~ most other locations.

Overview of General Internship Responsibilities

In this position, you will have significant responsibility and will gain skills useful for later work and school experiences, and you will learn a great deal about (and contribute to) a unique institution. You will also learn about the Delta's rich cultural heritage in ways that would not be possible in traditional service placements.

~~This is an eight week internship (June and July) with two intense weeks working directly with the National Endowment for the Humanities "Most Southern Place on Earth" workshop. Please~~

For 2020, Interns will have the opportunity to support a wide variety of Delta Center activities and projects reflecting the increasingly important and visible role of this organization within a regional, national, and international context. Although the signature workshop <sup>itself</sup> will not be offered in Summer 2020, Interns will support the three major commitments outlined above, as well as new initiatives. Interns will perform the following general types of tasks across a range of projects to be announced Spring semester:

Interns work with The Delta Center staff to prepare for special events currently in the planning stages. This may involve creating and organizing participant binders, reading and familiarizing themselves with relevant materials, managing daily snack and beverage containers for stationary and mobile classrooms (i.e., chartered bus), and other related educational, clerical, and physical activities.

In collaboration with Delta Center staff, interns help to document projects and events using ethnographic field narratives, photography, and videography methods. Examples of portfolios and documentary videos create by past Robertson Scholar interns can be found here.

Interns will assist with developing and writing social media posts and blogs for The Delta Center website.

As needed, Interns will conduct research, prepare written materials, and perform administrative tasks (e.g., updating database) for specific projects.

Interns are expect to work at The Delta Center 8:30 am-4:30 pm Monday through Thursday. During special events, hours expand to 7:00 am-7:00 pm or longer.
