

Robertson Scholars' Past Plan Approvals

CROSS-CAMPUS PLANS

Robertson Scholars are permitted to pursue cross-campus second majors, minors, and certificates if similar opportunities do not exist at the home institution. To be eligible, a student must submit an official request and receive written consent from both the Duke and UNC Deans' Offices.

Because curricular offerings are dynamic, plans are not permanently approved. Each is evaluated every time a student requests authorization. The list below shows the plans that have received approval from Duke since inception of the policy through Fall 2020, as well as the last time the plan was reviewed.
